[FOR THE DAILY NEWS.] " Our Percy."

BY M'RS. C. A. BALL.

Far from the one who loved him best, Whose eyes are dimmed with weeping. With a fearful wound in his youthful breast, "Our Percy" is calmly alceping.

Swiftly and sure the death shaft sped; And his slumber shall know no waking, "Till the trump, which to life recalls the dead, The trembling earth is shaking.

Alone he lies in Magnolia's shade, With no marble to tell his story, And few know the spot where our boy is laid, Who "died on the neld of glory."

Yet even his isolated grave
Shall be dressed with wreath and flower,
And our own Paimetto shall o'er him wave,
With the rose of the garden bower. For noble woman, tender and true,
Will seek through the silent city,
And the bed of each hero with garlands strew,
And drop o'er it the tear of pity.

While the mother mourns in her distant home, With a grief that knows no measure, Gentle feet to his resting place will come, Loving hands deak the grave of her treasure.

> [FOR THE DAILY NEWS.] An Echo from Summerville.

DEDICATED TO THE "LADIES" MEMORIAL ASSOCIATION,"

Exquisite music floatet 1 free
From the Old City by the sea—
Half jubilant, half drear;
It fills mine eyes with hely tears;
Recalls the hope of former years,
The mingled faith and love: The fears
Would sometime loom upon the scene,
Clothing the sky serone,
In clouds that came between
Is and the suppose hear ls, and the rainbow hue os, and the rainbow nues
All gloriously diffused,
Begot of sunny ray
Upon the crystal spray,
Spanning, with arc of light, the visionary sphere!

The breeze seems full of sights;
And low pathetic cries,
As from the snowy breat
Of woman when opprest
With grief profound—
Yet list! another sound!
A song of triumph mingling with the mean!
And all around are thrown
Strains, as from viewless spirits blending low,
Sweet music with the notes that from those mourners flow!

It is the chosen day,
When women homage pay
To those have perished in a cause as high
As ever lit the eye,
Or stirred the spirit of herole knight!
None other can compare
Bave that which in you sphere
Pla es the crown of Christian martyrhood,
Upon the foreheads of the brave and good;
A garland dazzling bright,
Wove of celestial light!

They come, the bright and fair!
With hearts true to the cause,
The holy, patriot laws
Of God and man, to strew with flower-buds rare,
The graves where calmly sleep
The forms that erst did sweep
Across the gory pain,
Carrying within their train
Death and destruction to the haughty foe;
Till God's mysterious power
In a ne o'erwhelming hour,
O'erthrew their hopes and laid their banners low
With stern, chastising blow!

Come on and pour the dirge—
We stand upon the verge
Of utter ruin. All in vain! in vain!
The ghastly wounds, the blood that fell as rain
Upon the war-bruised earth—the dying groan
Of sire, son and brother;
And the mate
Of heart left desolate:
One dies on battle-field—the while another
In gloomy prison ward would gladly smother
The sight of suguish piercing to the soul
Of bleeding comrade dear
Whose life is abbing there—
The stern control

The stern control

Causes the beaded sweat adown his face to roll!

In vain? Say not "in vain."
Dispel the dismal strain,
And feed the summer air with anthems high!
The God who fills the sky
And walketh on the whirlwind still is near,
And bends a listening ear.
Hi: oly eye
Will not behold, unchecked, iniquity!
The sands run on apace
And bring the day of grace,
When once more, hand in hand,
We shall unshackled stand,
And brea'he the breath of freemen in the State
Where God has fixed our fate!

Then catch we up the music as it floats,
And add exultant notes

As we pass on to lay our garlands fair,
Beaded with memory's tear,
Upon the three * loved graves
Ger which bright nature waves
Her coronal of ever changing hues;
Where evening sheds her dews,
And holy stars diffuse
The hope that other ever then ours watch even ope that other eyes than ours watch The heroes whose repose is sacred evermore

The Charleston Cotton Market. The unsettled state of affairs in Europe, and the rapid rise of gold in New York, has so unsettled commercial matters that buyers and sellers were indifferent about operating. We heard of sales of only 12 bales of Strict Middling, at 86c. W 1b.

Mobile Market.

MOBILE, June 13.—COTTON—There was no demand, consequently there were no sales. Prices nominal. Factors are holding Middling Cotton at 38c.

GOLD—The advance in New York has caused this market to advance also. The closing rate for buying and selling was 41 to 44.

BILVER—Buying and selling at 126 to 129. Mosters

Silven-Buying and selling at 126 to 128; Mexican Silven-Buying and selling at 126 to 128; Mexican dollars would bring 180. Not much doing. Exchange-Sterling nominal. New York sight 1/2. New Orleans par—very scarce.

New Orleans Market.

NEW ORLEANS, June 13.—Cotton.—The demand was less active to-day, and as factors continued stringent in their pretensions, and there was only a moderate supply offering, the sales were confined to 900 bales, at figures showing no material change in prices. We accordingly repeat our previous quotations of 29 to 30c for ordinary, and 33 to 35c for good ordinary, but raise our figures for low middling from 37 to 39c, and put middling at it, the inside figures in our last report being really about 1c too low.

16%c for white. Cuba Sugar is retailing at 13 to 13 to for No. 12, 13%c for No. 13, 14%c for No. 14, 16c for No. 15, and 17%c for No. 20. The previous sales of Mo'asses were at 55c per gallon for common Louisiana, and 50c for Cuba.

50c for Cuba.

Freguesta—There is more offering coastwise, but foreign freights continue very dull. The rates are lo per lb for cotion and 80c per bbl for flour by steam for New York and Boston, and ½c per lb and 50c per bbl by sail. The rates for Liverpool are ½d per lb for cotton by sail and 1c for Havre.

Memphis Market.

Memphis Market.

MEMPHIS, June 15.—COTTON—The market yesterday was inactive, owing to the depression and decline of the New York market. Buyers were wanting in confidence to concede to prices asked, while holders were firm, and offering nothing but small lots. Holders were asking from one to two cents above buyers' views. The 10 30 New York dispatch reported cotton nominally unchanged. Uplands 39 to 40c; Orleans 41c. The 11 30 dispatch said cotton was dull and nominal; Orleans of fored at 40c. There were few transactions in the market here. We report sales of middling at 35 to 36 cents; strict middling at 37c, and low middling at 35 to 34c. The market closed dull and unseitled at the following quotations:

Baltimore Market.

sale of 28 puncheous English Island reported at 67c per gallon.

Provisions—Owing to the very small stock offering, the market continues firm, with a tendency to still higher figures. Mess pork is held at 30 50 to $33 per bbl. Bulk meats are also held above buyers' views. Bacon is steady at 165 for shoulders, 19c for sides, and 24½ to 25c for fine bagged hams. Lard, last sale of city at 21½c, and Western 23c per lb.

BUGAR—Late yesterday there was a sale of 125 hhds Porto Bico at 13 cents. To day we have nothing to report, holders firm under the high range of gold.

BALT—Liverpool ground alum is seiling quite freely at $2; fine stoady at $3 25 for Marshall's and Worthing ton's; 3 15 to $3 20 for Jeffrey & D'Arcy's, and down to $3 as to quality for brands less known. Turks Island is firm at 60c per bushel for lots from store.

WHISKEX—No report received.

New York Market. MONEY MARKET.

The New York World of Friday, the 15th, says:

The New York World of Friday, the 15th, says:

The money market continues easy for loans on call at five per cent, and with exceptional transactions at four and six per cent.

The gold market is strong and advanced to 147%, opening at 146% and closing at 147%. Gold was scarce for delivery to day, and loans were made at rates ranging from 3-64 per cent to % per cent per day, and outside of the gold room % and % per cent were paid for large sums. The shipment of specie on Saturday is estimated variously at from $2,500,000 to $4,000,000. The course of the gold market has been somewhat different from what the public had a right to expect from the letter of the Assistant Treasurer of this port, whose valuation is 128 1-10—a price never touched, even by accident, since the passage of the Legal Tender Act, the nearest approach being 128%. The buyers of gold are waiting auxiaucusly for Mr. Van Dyke's 128 1-10, which was promised to them on the return news from Europe, after receipt of the Government's $35,400,000 gold sold to foreigners at 130% to 130%, to assist in keeping the Bank of England from suspending specie payments.

The foreign exchange market is firm and higher for bills on Parls and Berlin. The quotations for prime bankers' are: Sixty-day sterling, 100%; do three days, 111;; Parls, sixty days, 5.10, and the leading prime bankers', 5.08%; do three days sight, 5.06%; Bremen, sixty days, 60%; Hamburg, 37%; Frankfort, 44 to 44%; and Berlin and Cloigne, 75 to 76%.

And Berlin and Cologno, 75 to 75%.

PRODUCE MARKET.

NEW YORK, June 14.—COFFEE is in demand, but is depressed in price. We quoto: Java at 25 to 25 cents, Native Ceylon at 20 to 22 cents, Marcaibo at 17 to 20% cents, Laguayra at 17 to 20 cents, Rlo at 15 to 20 cents, and 8t Domingo at 17 to 17% cents, cash, in gold, per lb. Sales 1100 bags.

COTYON is rather more sought after and is held with more firmness, in view of the rise in gold. Middlings 40 to 420 per lb. Sales and resales since our last, 3200 bales, against exports of 1687 bales.
